

TJ Awards 2012 - WORKSHOPS

Now is the time to start planning your application to the TJ Awards 2012 and TJ is offering plenty of support to help you improve your chances of success.

Last year we introduced Masterclasses to provide guidance and support for those wishing to enter, the dates for next year's workshops are: We offer two options:

- A one-hour free session providing hints and tips on completing a successful application
- A two-hour Masterclass where numbers will be limited and the participants will be given more detailed, individual support which will cost £190 plus VAT *

This fee will include a free judges' report on one application submitted into the TJ Awards 2012.

These will run on 18th April, 9th May, 23rd May, 6th June, 13th June and 20th June and all events will be held at TJ's offices in Westminster. You can find out more by email at awards@trainingjournal.com or by telephone on 01353 865340.

To register for the free one hour session contact awards@trainingjournal.com quoting your preferred date/s and to book your place for the Masterclass click on the appropriate link above.

We are also running two new workshops Evidencing training award submissions and Using SurveyMonkey for training evaluation both workshops will be invaluable to anyone thinking of entering this year and will be run in conjunction with Boost Marketing and Evaluation.
